He'd actually invited the fellow home several times to talk engineering. Colman had some fascinating ideas. He frowned and shook his head before he could stop himself. "Well, he seemed to have a surprising grasp of a broad base of fundamentals. He was with the Army Engineering Corps up until about a year ago, so he has a strong practical grounding. And he's studied extensively since we left Earth. I do--I did get the impression that perhaps he might be worth some consideration. But of course that's just an opinion." "Good, very good. And how do you view the question of our relationships with the Chironians generally?" "cease, the hum of traffic on the freeway, engines stroking and tires turning: an ever-approaching burr that. Stern nodded slowly as he ticked off the points one by one in his mind, looking at Stormbel coolly, then turned to Gaultz, one of the senior scientists, who was sitting with some advisers to one side of the room.
